

Quality, Environmental, Health and Safety Policy

WAH LOON's Quality, Environmental, Occupational Health and Safety Policy endorsed by the Chairman is as follows:

Quality Policy

We are committed to ensure Total Customer Satisfaction through:

- Reliable, Safe and Quality Workmanship
- On time Project Completion
- Systematic Project Management

Environmental, Health and Safety Policy

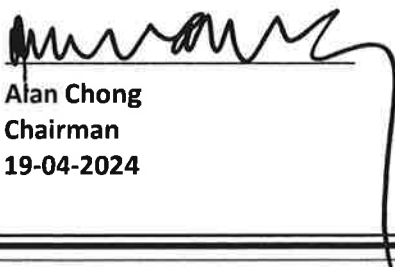

- Improve EHS performance through conservation of natural resources, waste minimization, proper housekeeping and prevention of pollution.
- Adopting the 3Rs (Reduce, Reuse & Recycle) to conserve natural resources while contributing towards climate, environmental sustainability.
- Devoting effort towards prevention of work-related injury and ill health.
- Providing adequate resources to support the Workplace Safety and Health (WSH) management system programmes including continuous training and enhance the competency of all workers and trade partners.
- Assigning clear and dedicated roles and responsibilities for all stakeholders.
- Commitment, consultation, participation and involvement of all employees, workers and/or their representatives, trade partners and other interested parties in adopting of prudent Environment, Health and Safety principles and practices.

SGSecure

- The commitment to manage and respond to terror threats.

We are also committed to:

- Meet customers and comply with all applicable regulatory, legal and other requirements.
- Continuously improve and monitoring our QEHS performances to eliminate and reduce QEHS hazards, risks & impacts associated with our operation.

Alan Chong
Chairman
19-04-2024